ST MARY'S PARISH 150th ANNIVERSARY

Next year, 2020, will mark the 150th anniversary of the establishment of St Mary's Parish Concord. A church and school had existed on the present parish site from the 1840s. They were part of Petersham parish until Concord parish was established in 1870. The launch of the parish celebrations will be held on Sunday 3 May 2020. More information will be available later in the year.

ST MARY'S CHURCH DEDICATION 25th ANNIVERSARY

A fire on 28 January 1993 extensively damaged the church. It took 16 months to repair it and during that time Sunday Masses were celebrated in the Parish Hall.

We returned to the church in May 1994. The church had been blessed when it was opened in 1929 but the custom of that time was that a church was not dedicated until any debt was cleared. It was therefore appropriate to dedicate the church after the restoration work was completed in 1994.

The Dedication of the Church was celebrated by Cardinal Edward Clancy, the Archbishop of Sydney, on 31 July 1994. The four brass crosses on the walls of the church mark the places where the church walls were anointed with Chrism during the Rite of Dedication.

NEW PLAYGROUP St Mary's Concord are starting a NEW PLAYGROUP in August for families with children between the ages of 0-5 years old. This will be in the hall on Wednesday between 9.30-11am weekly starting in August. It will be guided by Mrs Leanne Favotto with the assistance of parents.

All families from our community are invited to attend with their children. It is an opportunity for parents/carers and grandparents to meet other families with their children. We aim to provide a supportive and nurturing environment where you can all share like experiences and play opportunities for children as well as having some fun. If you are interested in attending please forward your email details to the Parish office at stmarysconcord.org.au and Mrs Favotto will contact you with further details.

A message from the Archdiocese of Sydney

Child sexual abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you, or anyone you know, have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office of the Archdiocese of Sydney at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org.

You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.

The full Archdiocesan Manual for safeguarding children in our parish communities is available on the Archdiocesan website at:

<https://www.sydneycatholic.org/safeguarding-and-child-protection/>

We understand how difficult it can be for people who have experienced abuse to make a complaint. We have developed a Listening to You card, which is available in all our parishes to provide guidance for those wishing to make a complaint. We want to support you in this process and we can provide counselling and support services if needed. For assistance, please contact safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org or visit www.sydneycatholic.org/safeguarding-and-child-protection/ All cards from the Safeguarding office can be found on the table at the back of the church.

REFLECTION MORNINGS | 2019 FIELD OF COMPASSION

“We must engage the new vision that is emerging within and among us with urgency. We haven't much time to turn things around. And turnaround will come not from an extraordinary rescue by an extraordinary deity. As we may have heard before, we are the ones we are waiting for” - Judy Cannato. Judy Cannato, American Catholic author and spiritual director, wrote primarily of the new vision that arises from the relationship between contemporary science and religion. She writes of the perennial Christian challenge of building the Kingdom of God from the perspective of evolutionary science, in language that is fresh and full of new insights, but always filled with the gospel imperative of love. In our 6 reflection mornings this year we will reflect on extracts from her last book, Field of Compassion. Mothers with babies are most welcome!

The reflection mornings will be held at the Grail Centre, 22 McHatton Street, North Sydney, on Tuesdays from 10 am to 12 noon. The Grail Centre is well served by public transport (bus and train) and 2-hour parking is available in McHatton Street from 9:30 am.

Dates: 12 February, 2 April, 21 May, 9 July, 10 September and 12 November.

For more information or to register your interest, please contact Patricia Gemmell pgemmell@tpg.com.au or the Grail Centre on 9955 3053. A donation to cover the cost of refreshments and the use of the facility would be greatly appreciated.

OF LIFE AND LOVE PRE-MARRIAGE COURSE IN OCTOBER

This excellent course for engaged couples gives particular emphasis to the spiritual and sacramental dimensions of marriage, while also paying due attention to the practical elements as well. It highlights the importance of God's grace and human love in building a happy relationship, and it suggests ways in which married love can grow over the years. Topics include the beauty of Christian marriage, openness to life, family of origin, communication and the nuptial paradigm. An approved course for marriage preparation in the Catholic Church.

HOW DO I BECOME A CATHOLIC?
