

ST MARY'S CONCORD –25 August, 2019

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

*We congratulate the children who are celebrating their First Holy Communion
this Sunday*

Thank you to all those who have supported our three parish celebrations of 1st Holy Communion.

Music is always an important part of our worship; we thank Jessica and the parish choir and Catherine on the organ and piano for leading us in song.

Our celebrations would not be possible without many others who assist as readers, ministers of Communion, acolytes and wardens.

Our parish celebrations are always supported by St Mary's School and we value the assistance of many staff who have been present with us. Special thanks to the Year 3 teachers, to Leeanne Favotto (Family Educator), Michelle Sraih (Religious Education Coordinator) and Anna Marsella (Principal).

Much of the preparation for 1st Holy Communion happens behind the scene. Special thanks to Jenni, our parish secretary, who has coordinated the registrations, the communication with families and the preparation of the certificates for the children.

PARISH SOCIAL EVENT

The Social Committee is planning a special Pre-Jubilee Morning Tea in the Church Forecourt after the 9.30 am Mass on Sunday 15 September.

This event replaces the Parish Dinner for this year. It is hoped that all parishioners will take the opportunity to gather after Mass and share an hour with friends.

Tables and chairs will be set up in the Forecourt and the parish will provide finger food and drinks.

A donation on the day of a small plate of cakes or biscuits to share with the tea and coffee will also be appreciated.

It will also be an opportunity for all parishioners to see the renovations in the school playground that have been completed by St Mary's School.

Planning has already begun for our 150th Anniversary celebrations which will be launched on Sunday 5 May 2020 at the 9.30 am Mass followed by a Jubilee Morning Tea in the Forecourt.

PARISH MORNING TEA: The monthly morning tea after the 9.30 am Mass will be held next Sunday, 1 September. The morning tea each month is hosted by the parish Family Groups. If you can, please bring a small plate of food to share.

MIGRANTS and REFUGEES

Sunday 25 August is the 105th World Day of Migrants and Refugees. The theme this year is It's not just about migrants. We are reminded that it is also about ourselves, our fears and our hopes. Australia today is one of the most successful multicultural societies in the world. We are a community that has welcomed migrants and refugees since the early 1800s.

Yet for some people, every new wave of arrivals is greeted with the fear that these people will change our way of life. Our experience as a nation is that we have changed and overwhelmingly those changes have been positive. At a time when there are some who seek to use "fear of the stranger" for their own political advantage, we need to remember that we have many blessings to share and much to gain from welcoming those who come seeking a better life.

FORMING INTENTIONAL DISCIPLES

As a major renewal initiative for this year, the Archdiocese of Sydney is sponsoring the visit of Sherry Weddell, noted author of Forming Intentional Disciples. Sherry Weddell will lead three different renewal events in Sydney during September.

The first event will focus on the collaboration of schools and parishes in the work of evangelisation. It is aimed at parish and school leaders.

The second event will be directed to priests and deacons at a Clergy Conference to be held on 11 September.

The third event with Sherry Weddell on Saturday 7 September will be a workshop for pastors and parish lay leaders and will focus on practical strategies for working with parish communities.

If anyone is interested in attending the workshop or learning more about Forming Intentional Disciples please contact the Parish Office.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

Child sexual abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you, or anyone you know, have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office of the Archdiocese of Sydney at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org.

You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.

The full Archdiocesan Manual for safeguarding children in our parish communities is available on the Archdiocesan website at:

<https://www.sydneycatholic.org/safeguarding-and-child-protection/>

We understand how difficult it can be for people who have experienced abuse to make a complaint. We have developed a Listening to You card, which is available in all our parishes to provide guidance for those wishing to make a complaint. We want to support you in this process and we can provide counselling and support services if needed. For assistance, please contact safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org or visit www.sydneycatholic.org/safeguarding-and-child-protection/. All cards from the Safeguarding office can be found on the table at the back of the church.

REFLECTION MORNINGS | 2019 FIELD OF COMPASSION
"We must engage the new vision that is emerging within and among us with urgency. We haven't much time to turn things around. And turnaround will come not from an extraordinary rescue by an extraordinary deity. As we may have heard before, we are the ones we are waiting for" - Judy Cannato. Judy Cannato, American Catholic author and spiritual director, wrote primarily of the new vision that arises from the relationship between contemporary science and religion. She writes of the perennial Christian challenge of building the Kingdom of God from the perspective of evolutionary science, in language that is fresh and full of new insights, but always filled with the gospel imperative of love. In our 6 reflection mornings this year we will reflect on extracts from her last book, Field of Compassion. Mothers with babies are most welcome!

The reflection mornings will be held at the Grail Centre, 22 McHatton Street, North Sydney, on Tuesdays from 10 am to 12 noon. The Grail Centre is well served by public transport (bus and train) and 2-hour parking is available in McHatton Street from 9:30 am.

Dates: 12 February, 2 April, 21 May, 9 July, 10 September and 12 November.

For more information or to register your interest, please contact Patricia Gemmell pgemmell@tpg.com.au or the Grail Centre on 9955 3053. A donation to cover the cost of refreshments and the use of the facility would be greatly appreciated.

OF LIFE AND LOVE PRE-MARRIAGE COURSE IN OCTOBER

This excellent course for engaged couples gives particular emphasis to the spiritual and sacramental dimensions of marriage, while also paying due attention to the practical elements as well. It highlights the importance of God's grace and human love in building a happy relationship, and it suggests ways in which married love can grow over the years. Topics include the beauty of Christian marriage, openness to life, family of origin, communication and the nuptial paradigm. An approved course for marriage preparation in the Catholic Church.

HOW DO I BECOME A CATHOLIC? Adults who have not been baptized and wish to become part of the community of the Catholic Church receive the sacraments of Christian Initiation in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). The RCIA presumes that there is an extended period of formation and preparation, usually leading to the celebration of Baptism at Easter. Baptised members of other Christian Churches who wish to become members of the Catholic Church do so through Reception into Full Communion. If you are interested, or if you know of someone who may be interested in becoming a Catholic, please contact Fr Paul or the Parish Office tel 9747 4210.

PARKING BEHIND THE CHURCH The limited spaces behind the church, including the disabled space, are for short-term visitors to the Villa who are picking up or returning a resident and need to accompany the person to their room. A few parishioners coming to Mass who have genuine mobility problems have been given permission to park behind the church. All others are asked to respect the parking restrictions.

CAR ACCESS FROM BURTON STREET No parking is available in the area between the church and the Villa for Sunday Masses, Weddings or Funerals. The Burton Street entrance is the only access to St Mary's Villa for an ambulance and must be kept clear at all times. The driveway can only be used as a drop-off area for the Church. It is important that all car drivers respect the parking restrictions.
