MOMENTS IN HISTORY

Dean Callaghan McCarthy

Fr Callaghan McCarthy, the founding parish priest of St Mary's Concord, was born in Ireland in 1826. He began his studies to become a priest at All Hallows College, Dublin and arrived in Sydney as a deacon in 1849. He was ordained a priest on 16 March 1850 and his first appointment was to Hartley, west of the Blue Mountains, and from there he became the first parish priest of Mudgee.

After the Bathurst Diocese was created in 1865, Fr McCarthy asked to return to Sydney. He worked in Manly before being appointed the first parish priest of the newly established parish of St Mary's Concord in April 1870.

For the next 24 years he worked with the local Catholic community in Concord and Burwood to build up the parish. The first church on the site, described as a "Catholic Chapel", had been built in 1845. Work soon began on the second church with the blessing of the foundation stone by Archbishop Polding on 6 July 1873. The church was completed in 1874 and then extended in 1890.

As a senior priest, Fr McCarthy had been given the title "Dean" by Archbishop Vaughan in 1883. He also served as one of the consultors to Cardinal Moran, the Archbishop of Sydney. On 31 October 1894 he was travelling by train to a meeting of the Diocesan Consultors at St Mary's Cathedral when his train was involved in a collision with another train near Redfern leaving many killed and injured.

Ignoring his own injuries, including extensive burns caused by the steam escaping from the engine, he helped care for other injured passengers before asking to be taken to St Vincent's Hospital. He died the following day, 1 November 1894. In a few weeks we will mark the 125th anniversary of his death.

ST MARY'S PARISH 150th ANNIVERSARY Next year we will celebrate the 150th anniversary of the establishment of St Mary's Parish. The launch of the parish celebrations will be held on Sunday 3 May 2020.

The present parish site was acquired for a church and school in 1844 and in June 1845 Archbishop Polding blessed the foundation stone for the first church. The first church opened on 7 December 1846 and stood in the present Church Forecourt in front of the present hall. At first priests came from Parramatta to celebrate Sunday Mass. When the parish of St Thomas Becket was established at Petersham (now Lewisham) in 1851, the Burwood-Concord area became part of Petersham parish. By the mid-1860s a priest was residing in a rented house on Parramatta Road Concord. It was located where the present Kindergarten building stands. St Mary's Concord became a separate parish in 1870 and Fr Callaghan McCarthy was appointed the first Parish Priest.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL Volunteers are needed to join the Concord Conference. Our SVdP members offer emergency assistance to those in need. Members are asked to attend a fortnightly meeting on a Wednesday evening. Meetings usually take about an hour. A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

Child sexual abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you, or anyone you know, have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office of the Archdiocese of Sydney at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org.

You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.

The full Archdiocesan Manual for safeguarding children in our parish communities is available on the Archdiocesan website at:

<https://www.sydneycatholic.org/safeguarding-and-child-protection/>

We understand how difficult it can be for people who have experienced abuse to make a complaint. We have developed a Listening to You card, which is available in all our parishes to provide guidance for those wishing to make a complaint. We want to support you in this process and we can provide counselling and support services if needed. For assistance, please contact safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org or visit www.sydneycatholic.org/safeguarding-and-child-protection/. REFLECTION MORNINGS | 2019 FIELD OF COMPASSION

"We must engage the new vision that is emerging within and among us with urgency. We haven't much time to turn things around. And turnaround will come not from an extraordinary rescue by an extraordinary deity. As we may have heard before, we are the ones we are waiting for" - Judy Cannato. Judy Cannato, American Catholic author and spiritual director, wrote primarily of the new vision that arises from the relationship between contemporary science and religion. She writes of the perennial Christian challenge of building the Kingdom of God from the perspective of evolutionary science, in language that is fresh and full of new insights, but always filled with the gospel imperative of love. In our 6 reflection mornings this year we will reflect on extracts from her last book, Field of Compassion. Mothers with babies are most welcome!

The reflection mornings will be held at the Grail Centre, 22 McHatton Street, North Sydney, on Tuesdays from 10 am to 12 noon. The Grail Centre is well served by public transport (bus and train) and 2-hour parking is available in McHatton Street from 9:30 am.

Last Date: 12 November.

For more information or to register your interest, please contact Patricia Gemmell pgemmell@tpg.com.au or the Grail Centre on 9955 3053. A donation to cover the cost of refreshments and the use of the facility would be greatly appreciated.

OF LIFE AND LOVE PRE-MARRIAGE COURSE IN OCTOBER
This excellent course for engaged couples gives particular emphasis to the spiritual and sacramental dimensions of marriage, while also paying due attention to the practical elements as well. It highlights the importance of God’s grace and human love in building a happy relationship, and it suggests ways in which married love can grow over the years. Topics include the beauty of Christian marriage, openness to life, family of origin, communication and the nuptial paradigm. An approved course for marriage preparation in the Catholic Church.

HOW DO I BECOME A CATHOLIC? Adults who have not been baptized and wish to become part of the community of the Catholic Church receive the sacraments of Christian Initiation in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). Baptised members of other Christian Churches who wish to become members of the Catholic Church do so through Reception into Full Communion. If you are interested, or if you know of someone who may be interested in becoming a Catholic, please contact Fr Paul or the Parish Office tel 9747 4210.

PARKING BEHIND THE CHURCH The limited spaces behind the church, including the disabled space, are for short-term visitors to the Villa who are picking up or returning a resident and need to accompany the person to their room. A few parishioners coming to Mass who have genuine mobility problems have been given permission to park behind the church. All others are asked to respect the parking restrictions.

CAR ACCESS FROM BURTON STREET No parking is available in the area between the church and the Villa for Sunday Masses, Weddings or Funerals. The Burton Street entrance is the only access to St Mary's Villa for an ambulance and must be kept clear at all times. The driveway can only be used as a drop-off area for the Church. It is important that all car drivers respect the parking restrictions.
